ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

On September 6, 2013, at the Initial Appearance of Defendant, David Flores-Acedo, this Court considered the matter of his detention. Having considered the oral report of the Pretrial Services Officer recommending detention and confirmed that Flores-Acedo is presently in custody pursuant to an Order of Detention in Cause No. 1:13-cr-55; USA v. Garrett, et al., pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas, Beaumont Division, the Court issues this Order of Detention.

Since Flores-Acedo presently has no legitimate claim to a liberty interest that would justify an immediate or meaningful detention determination under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), it is the ORDER of this Court that good cause exists to postpone the need for such a determination until such time as Flores-Acedo can maintain a legitimate liberty interest before this Court. See United States v. King, 818 F.2d 112, 114 (1st Cir. 1987), see also United States v. Coonan, 826 F.2d 1180, 1183 (2^d Cir. 1987). Accordingly, the Court finds that there is no need to make a final detention determination at this time.

It is, therefore, ORDERED that the Defendant, David Flores-Acedo, be, and is hereby, COMMITTED to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility.

It is further ORDERED that the Defendant, David Flores-Acedo, SHALL be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel.

It is further ORDERED that upon Order of a Court of the United States or upon request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility SHALL deliver David Flores-Acedo to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a Court proceeding.

DONE at Houston, Texas, this _____ 6th _____ day of September, 2013.

John R. Froeschner
United States Magistrate Judge
